

What can I read next?

Reading for pleasure: where to find booklists and recommendations

King Edward VI School website at www.kes.net
Look on the Library page under Academic Curriculum where there are links to booklists, the Library catalogue and the Book of the Week blog.

The CILIP Carnegie Medal

The CILIP Carnegie Medal is awarded each year by children's librarians for an outstanding book written in English for young people. The archive shows past winners: carnegiegreenaway.org.uk/archive.php?medal=carnegie

Welcome to King Edward VI School Library
The School Library catalogue has suggestions for further reading and reviews by our students: <https://eclipse.microlibrarian.net/?&site=U012074>

The reading charity Book Trust has a book finder option that suggests books by age-range and genre: booktrust.org.uk/books/bookfinder

TEN BOOKLISTS

Adventure . Ancient worlds . Families .
Fantasy . Frights . Futuristic . Laughs .
The past . Spies . Troubles .

There are Library and English Department booklists available on the Issuu website at this address: issuu.com/l\_watts

Lovereading4schools.co.uk is a commercial site aimed at selling books to parents and schools. However, it is free to register and their booklists are presented in age ranges.

Book of the Week

chosen by the Librarian of King Edward VI School, Stratford-upon-Avon

Each week the School Librarian chooses a book, reviews it on the Book of the Week blog and posts it on the School's Twitter account. The blog also has links to booklists and book sites: mrswatts101.edublogs.org

The Scottish Book Trust is a charity devoted to books, reading and writing. They have booklists for adults, teenagers and children at this address: scottishbooktrust.com/reading/book-lists

