

Here the body of King Edward is being carried to the church of St Peter the Apostle. King Edward in bed addresses his loyal friends. And here he is dead.

Here sits Harold as King of the English. They have given Harold the royal crown. These men wonder at the star.

Here Duke William has ordered the building of ships

These men are carrying arms to the ships. And here they are pulling a cart with wine and arms.

Here William in a great ship crosses the sea.

Here meat is being cooked. Attendants have served it.

This man has ordered a ditch to be dug and a castle at Hastings. Here William has had news of Harold.

William orders his soldiers to prepare themselves bravely and wisely for battle...

...against the English Army.

Here the English & French have fallen together in battle.

Here King Harold has been killed

And the English have turned in flight.