

Lech Wałęsa

Poland President (1990 - 95)
Founded Solidarity in 1980, Soviet Bloc's first Trade Union.
His presidency saw ~~Wałęsa~~ Poland through privatization and transition to a free-market economy under the Borkowicz Plan.

Wałęsa supported NATO entry.

Brandt was leader of the SPD in Germany from 1964 to 1967 and served as Chancellor from 1969 to 1974, West Germany.

Willy Brandt

Schmidt was member of SPD and served as German Chancellor (West Germany) from 1974 to 1982.

As Chancellor he sought "political unification of Europe in partnership with the US".

Helmut Schmidt

Andrey Vyshinsky

Vyshinsky was a Soviet politician.

He is known as a state prosecutor at Stalin's Moscow trials and in the Nuremberg trials. He served as Soviet foreign minister from 1949 - 1953.

Lucius Clay

Clay was an American officer and military governor of US Army

Clay orchestrated the Berlin Airlift when the USSR blockaded West Berlin (1948 - 1949).

Hirohito (Emperor Showa)

Hirohito was the 124th Emperor of Japan. 'Showa' is a posthumous name, meaning the end of an era, 'Hirohito' means abundant benevolence. When Japan surrendered in WW2 he was not prosecuted & saw the country become the largest ~~industrial~~ world economy.

General Matthew Ridgway

Ridgway was a senior US army officer, most famous for resurrecting the UN war effort during the Korean War. Many credit Ridgway with turning the war around in favour of the UN.

Ngo Dinh Diem

Diem was a Catholic South Vietnamese politician who led a hugely unpopular US-backed regime in the South until a military coup ended his rule.

Imre Nagy

Nagy was a Hungarian Communist politician, appointed Chairman of the Council of Ministers of the Hungarian People's Republic on two occasions. His term ended when his government was brought down by Soviet invasion.

Mao Zedong

Chairman Mao was a Chinese Communist revolutionary and founder of the People's Republic of China which he governed until his death in 1976

Winston Churchill

Churchill was Prime Minister of the UK from 1940 to 1945 and again from 1951 to 1955. As Prime Minister he led Britain to victory over Nazi Germany in WWII.

Ho Chi Minh

Ho Chi Minh was a Vietnamese Communist revolutionary who was Prime Minister of North Vietnam from 1945-55 and a key figure in the Vietcong during the Vietnam War.

Walter Ulbricht

Herman Communist politician leader of Herman Democratic Republic

Developed the New Economic System, supposed to revolutionise the GDR's economy , during the Berlin Wall .

Curtis LeMay

A general in the United States Air Force .

Initiated Berlin airlift then reorganised Strategic Air Command into instrument of nuclear war .

Deng Xiaoping

Chinese Communist leader
from 1978 - 1989

Big focus on economic policiesdecentralized economic management to achieve efficient, controlled economic growth.

Strengthened China's trade & cultural ties with the West

Heng Samrin

cambodian politician,
president of People's Republic of Kampuchea after Vietnamese invasion & occupation of his country in 1979

Decent leader until Hun
Sen became PM in 1985,
where he lost a lot of power

James Earl (Jimmy) Carter Jr

US president 1977-1981
Reopened diplomatic relations w/ China, signed
SALT II, kinda made headway in attempts to broker peace between Arab-
Israeli conflict
Defeated by Iran hostage situation

Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini

Iranian religious & political leader When a group of Iranians ~~protesters~~ took American hostages at the US Embassy in protest to the US taking in the Shah Pahlavi.
he took it as chance to demonstrate new Iranian defiance to the west headed the Iraq-Iran War in 1980

General Wojciech Jaruzelski

Polish military officer, PM from 1981 - 1985 imposed martial law in Poland in 1981, trying to crush any pro-democracy opposition and Solidarity. Persecuted, jailed & killed any opposition without charge, leading to socio-economic crisis.

Agostinho Neto

Led MPLA in the war for independence in Angola (1961-1974) and the civil war (1975-2002), becoming 1st President of Angola in 1975. Established one-party state, developed close alliances w/ Communist states.

Augusto Pinochet

Military ruler & president of Chile between 1973-1990, running a dictatorship after a US-backed coup d'état. Implemented harsh measures, murdering/disappearing thousands, but also made Chile one of the best-performing countries economy-wise in Latin America.

Eduard Shevardnadze

de facto leader of Soviet Georgia from 1972 - 1985
Minister of Foreign Affairs of USSR from 1985 - 1991.
Very influential in Gorbachev's rule, helping him gain trust of the West - involved in withdrawal of Soviet troops from Afghanistan, new arms treaties w/ US, glasnost & perestroika

Václav Havel

last president of Czechoslovakia from 1989 - 1992, 1st president of Czech Republic from 1993 - 2003.
Played role in fall of Communism in Czechoslovakia from Velvet Revolution in 1989, dismantling Warsaw Pact & expanding NATO membership eastward.

Violeta Chamorro

President of Nicaragua from 1990 - 1997. Established peace, ended hyperinflation & ruled during period of big economic & social decline in Nicaragua.

→ peace reforms - demobilised military, reduced size & power ended national draft

Joseph Morrell Dodge

- Economic advisor for post-war
stabilisation of Germany and Japan

- Made into Eisenhower's director of Bureau of Budget in 1953
- ↳ Managed to cut projected deficit of $10bn in half
- ↳ Ultimately removed $12bn
of government spending

Shigeru Yoshida

- Japanese diplomat and Prime Minister 1946-7 and 1948-54

- Emphasised Japanese economic recovery and reliance on US protection at the expense of independence in foreign affairs - Known as Yoshida
Doctrine

- Secretary of State under Eisenhower 1953-59

- ↳ Aggressive stance against
Communism

- Supported France in Vietnam and quelling Guatemalan Revolution

- Pioneer of massive retaliation
and brinkmanship

John Foster Dulles

Syngman Rhee

- First president of South Korea
- ↳ Vehement anti-communist
- ↳ In favour of attacking north
- Chosen by the US due to his great English and conservatism

Zhou Enlai

- First 'Premier' of the People's Republic of China under Mao
- ↳ Instrumental in
- Advocated Communist Party's rise, consolidation, foreign policy and economics
- Advocated peaceful coexistence with the West
- ↳ Helped on Nixon's visit to China

Joseph McCarthy

- Senator from Wisconsin from 1947-57
- ↳ From 1950, alleged that communists and Soviet spies were in the highest levels of government and the media
- Eventually censured by the Senate for attacking the Army
- Major figure in shift of Cold War focus to Asia

General Maxwell Taylor

- Fifth Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff - Appointed by Kennedy

- Crucially important to early stages of Vietnam War
 - ↳ Recommended that 8,000 troops be sent
 - ↳ Opposed 1963 coup against Diem

Henry Cabot Lodge Jr.

- Ambassador to South Vietnam 1963-4
 - ↳ Determined that Diem was inept and corrupt
 - ↳ Lodge supported 1963 coup
- Lodge soon realized the coup had been disastrous
 - ↳ Recommended that S. Vietnam become a US protectorate

Anatas Mikoyan

- Pivotal Soviet statesman from the late Lenin period to early Brezhnev
- Made several key trips to the USA and Cuba
- Helped to organize Secret Speech
 - ↳ Gave great anti-Stalin speech at 20th Party Congress
- Opposed to nuclear Cuba
 - ↳ Major player in the withdrawal

General William Westmoreland

- Commanded US forces in Vietnam from 1964-68
- Given almost impossible brief: Achieve outright victory with minimal US casualties whilst not provoking China into action
- Westmoreland tactically successful but politically unsuccessful
↳ e.g. La Drang and Tet

Nguyen Van Thieu

- President of S. Vietnam from 1965-75
↳ Prior to this he was a general in the ARVN & the head of a military junta
- Established rule over S. Vietnam - Resigned on legit nation before the fall of Saigon

Alexander Dubček

- Czechoslovak politician and leader between 1968-9
↳ Tried to reform communist regime to liberalise it
↳ Very popular among the people
↳ Unpopular with Moscow
- Warsaw Pact invaded to stop the 'Prague Spring'
- 1970 - Expelled from Communist Party

Erich Honecker

Honecker was a German politician, acted as the General Secretary of the Socialist Unity Party, and led the GDR. He was responsible for the building of the Berlin Wall in 1961.

Gerald Ford

38th President from 1974 to 1977 following the resignation of Richard Nixon. Helped a move towards détente, signing the Helsinki Accords. Visited China in December 1975.

Jimmy Carter

39th US President from 1977 to 1981. Lead through SALT II, which ended détente, lead the boycott of the Moscow Summer Olympics in 1980. His Presidency ended with the Iran hostage crisis and the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan.

Francis Gary Powers

American ~~pilot~~ pilot whose CIA U-2 spy plane was shot down whilst flying in Soviet airspace. Led to the U-2 incident.

George F. Kennan

American diplomat and historian → advocate for containment. Also played major roles in Cold War programs and initiatives like the Marshall Plan. His writings inspired the Truman doctrine.

J. Edgar Hoover

FBI Director → Rad. anti-Communist, anti-subversive views and used Un-American tactics. Acted as FBI Director until his death in 02.5.72

Kim Il Sung

Fought the Japanese in the Red Army
Groomed as a leader for post-war Korea
Supreme Leader
Chairman and Premier from 1948. Took initiative in invading South Korea. Kim's persistence leading to China acquiescing.

Chiang Kai-shek

Chairman of the National Government of China from 1928 to 1931.
Served as the leader of the Republic of China between 1928 and 1975.

Gamal Abdel Nasser

Former president of Egypt. Led the 1952 overthrow of the Monarchy and lead as the 2nd President from 1956 to 28.9. 1970.

Allen Dulles

Former director of the Central Intelligence Agency in the USA. Part of Eisenhower's 'New Look'
program. Also helped create MK-Ultra,
the mind-control
experts.

Yuri Andropov

General Secretary
from 1982 - 1984.
Also led the
KGB from 1957
to 1982.
Died in 1984
aged ~~70~~ 69.

Boris Yeltsin

Boris Yeltsin
led as President of Russia from 10.6.1991
to 31.12.1999
His actions led to privatisation in Russia and the rise of the oligarchs.

Vyacheslav Molotov

1890 - 1986. Loyal supporter of Stalin. Foreign Minister 1939-49 and again from 1953-57. Leading Soviet rep. at Yalta + Potsdam. Accused the USA of being an imperialistic power and was partly responsible for the USSR's decision to effectively abandon the Declaration on Liberated Europe, agreed at Yalta. Also influenced hard-line Soviet decision Against 1947 Marshall Plan including a walk out at the Paris Peace Conference.

Andrei Gromyko

1943 - 46 - Soviet ambassador to USA.
1957 - 85 - Minister of foreign affairs
1985 - 88 - Chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet.
Played a role in CMC and resulting arms limitation treaties, such as the ABM Treaty, Nuclear Test Ban Treaty, SALT I and II + more. Helped build Brezhnev's policy of détente & supported Gorbachev's ascendancy.

Nicolae Ceaușescu

1965 - 89 - General Sec. of Romanian Communist Party
1974 - 89 - 1st President of Romania
Started off moderate, but became ↑ repressive with some saying his rule was the most rigidly Stalinist in the Soviet Bloc. Marked by an excessive cult of personality. Overthrown & executed during the 1989 Romanian Revolution - the only violent removal of a communist government in the 1989 revolution.

Edvard Beneš

President of the Czechoslovakian government in exile during WW2. His 2nd time as President came from 1945-1948. Although not a Communist, he was willing to work with Stalin, having decided there was more to gain from that than an alliance with Poland. He tried to resist a Communist-dominated government and showed a willingness to accept Marshall Aid. He resigned in 1948 alongside many other non-Communist government members leaving the pro-Moscow Communists in complete control.

Andrei Zhdanov

1946-47 - Chairman of the Soviet of the Union. A hard-line Stalinist who brought his extremism into his responsibility for Soviet culture. A meeting called in response to Marshall Plan in 1947 to prepare for the establishment of Cominform between European Communist representatives, was renowned for Zhdanov's speech outlining the 'Zhdanov Doctrine' that there were 2 world camps: Imperialists led by USA and Democrats led by USSR.

Dean G. Acheson

1949-53 - US Secretary of State. One of the architects of Marshall Plan and the establishment of US policy towards Europe and attitudes of the Cold War. Committed to containment and valued Asia among Communist-free - shown by his influence for US action in the Korean War (he persuaded Truman to act). Also known for hiding the creation of NATO, the decision to send US sailors to Vietnam and being asked to give counsel during the Cuban Missile Crisis.

Franklin D. Roosevelt

1933-45 - US President. Ended US isolationism. A committed democrat but was prepared to support USSR in the Grand Alliance and was optimistic that meaningful international cooperation could continue post-WW2. At Yalta in '45, Roosevelt wanted post-war reconstruction which conflicted with Stalin's desire for security through a network of Eastern European allies. Roosevelt offered 'self determination'. Criticised for naive view that Stalin's aims could be fulfilled through US-style democracy.

Anthony Eden

1940-45 - British Foreign Secretary. Central to allied planning & diplomatic negotiations throughout war. Also supported Churchill at Yalta i.e. agreed with controlling Soviet expansionism and establishing a firm US-British relationship. Opposed 'Appeasement'.

1955-57 - PM of UK. Criticised for his policies in the Middle East which led to the Suez Crisis.

Wladyslaw Gomulka

1943-48 - 1st Secretary of the Polish Workers' Party. 1956-70 - 1st Secretary of the Polish United Workers' Party. Communist who believed in notion of different national versions of socialism. Post-WW2 he worked to crush any opposition to Communism in Poland and supported the 1947 rigged elections. Supported the 'hard' Polish communist faction against the 'Mazurians'. Accused of 'Nationalist deviation' and replaced by compliant pro-Stalinist, Bierut. In 1956 he returned to power as a national hero after the Polish Spring.

Mohammad Reza Pahlavi

King of Iran 1941-79

Maintained a pro-Western foreign policy. He also fostered economic development in Iran.

US supported national development programs in Iran like the White Revolution. Later in the 1960s + 70s, the Shah sought to develop a more independent foreign policy & est. a working relationship w/ USSR + Eastern Europe. US tried to keep Iran away from moving towards USSR.

Clement Attlee

B: UK PM July 1945 - October 1951

Won 1945 general election ahead of Churchill. Had a deep mistrust of Stalin and wanted to maintain Britain's alliance with America in order to protect Western Europe from the potential threat of Communism. At the Potsdam Conference Attlee wanted to come up with long-term plans for the future of Germany.

Alexei Kosygin

Chairman of Soviet State Planning Committee (Gosplan). Later became Premier and First Secretary alongside Brezhnev.

Triggered the failed 1965 economic reform. Also well known for his open stance on solving the 1968 Prague Spring. So he is known as one of the most liberal members of the top leadership.

Margaret Thatcher

- British PM between 1975 and 1990.
- Good ally of Reagan - shared views with him on Communism and defense
 - ↳ Allowed missiles to be placed in the UK
- Disagreed with his Panama attacks

Leonid Brezhnev

- Soviet leader between 1964 and 1982.
- introduced the Brezhnev doctrine
- Second longest premiership, second only to Stalin
- His tenure marked an era of stagnation in USSR's political, economic and social development.

Josip Broz Tito

- Leader of Yugoslavia.
- Disagreed with Stalin over Communism in Europe

Robert McNamara

- Secretary of Defense 1961-1968 under JFK and Johnson
- Played a major role in escalation of the Vietnam War
- Longest serving defense secretary in US history

George W. Bush

- US president from 1989 to 1993
- oversaw the end of the Cold War + the fall of the Soviet Union
- As VP, he had attended the 1985 summit between Reagan and Gorbachev
- 1999 discussed arms reductions with Gorb in Malta

Che Guevara

- Argentine Marxist revolutionary
- Landed in Cuba in 1956 with Castro, after meeting him in 1954
- Qualified as a doctor but wanted to bring about change in S. America to relieve the poor
- when Fidel became President in 1959, Guevara was made head of the Cuban Bank
- helped other revolutions in Congo-Lanshua and Bolivia - killed by Bolivian troops

Zbigniew Brzezinski

- Former National Security Advisor of the US
- Served as a counselor to Johnson from 1964-1968
- National Security Advisor to Carter from 1977 to 1981

Helmut Kohl

- Chancellor of West Germany (1982-1990), then Chancellor of Germany until 1998
- Widely regarded as the main architect of German reunification
- "The Greatest European Leader of the second half of the 20th Century," - Bill Clinton

Yuri Gagarin

- Russian pilot and Cosmonaut.
- First human into outer space, when his spacecraft completed an orbit of the Earth on 12th April 1961
- Highly decorated → huge celebrity in USSR
- Died in a tragic pilot training aircraft in 1968

Lyndon B. Johnson

- President between 1963 and 1969
- Administration hampered by the Vietnam War, which had escalated massively
- Faced w lots of opposition at home - became an unpopular president
- Decided not to run in 1969 due to uncertainty

Douglas MacArthur

- Supreme Commander of US forces from 1945
- Accepted Japan's surrender
- In charge of the post-war occupation + rebuilding of Japan

Konrad Adenauer

- First Chancellor of West Germany, from 1949-1963.
- Responsible for the Berlin blockade and the Berlin crisis + subsequent Berlin wall
- Pioneered the Molotov Doctrine
↳ Did not recognise the GDR

Dwight D. Eisenhower

USA President

1953 - 1961

- ~ 'New look' Policy - change in USA foreign policy.
- ~ Escalation of nuclear arms race.

George Marshall

US Secretary of State

- ~ Created Marshall plan that meant Western Europe received Marshall Aid.

Henry Kissinger

US Secretary of State

1973 - 74

- ~ Realpolitik \Rightarrow Détente
- ~ Orchestrated opening of ~~the~~ Sino - USA relations
- ~ Negotiated Paris Peace Accords - ending Vietnam War.

Pope John Paul II

Pope ~~#6~~ 1978 - 2005

Fidel Castro

Leader of Cuba

~~1968~~

1959 - 2017.

Richard Nixon

President of USA.
1969 - 74.

Ralph Poco

- Promoted cause of Ralph independence in 1980s.

- led revolutionary movement in Cuba.

- Alliance with Khrushchev caused CMIC.

- Supported revolutionary movement in 1970/80s such as in Angola.

Nixon Doctrine - 'Vietnamization' of the W.

- Pursued closer Sino-US relations.

- Further arms Detente -

SALT I + Anti-Ballistic Missile Treaty.

- Watergate Scandal and Resignation.

Nikita Khrushchev

USSR Premier - ~~1953~~

1953 - 1964

- Policy of Peaceful Coexistence and The Thaw.
- Leader that helped bring an end to Cuban Missile Crisis.
- ~ Beginning of Detente.

Harry Truman

USA President
1945 - 1953

- Overwrote Potsdam Conference.
- Began arm race with Hiroshima/Nagasaki.
- Truman Doctrine - Policy of Containment.
- Communist causing UN intervention in Korea.

Joseph Stalin

USSR Premier

~~1922~~ - 1953
1922 - 1953

- Premier that caused Soviet expansionism into Eastern Europe

Michael Gorbachev

1982 - Became USSR Premier.

- Policies of Glasnost + Perestroika.

- Became

- Policy of non-intervention in the Eastern Bloc

Important shifts for collapse of Communist Eastern Bloc + end of USSR + end of CW

Summit diplomacy with Reagan.

- Determined to maintain Containment as basis of American f.p. -

- Vienna summit

~ Meet to peaceful coexistence.

- Escalated intervention in Vietnam.

- Overthrew S. Contra during Cuban Missile Crisis - diplomacy with Khrushchev - beginning of détente.

- Assassinated.

- Increased aggression towards Allies 'evil empire'

- Acceleration of arms race - Star Wars

- Engaged in Summit diplomacy with Gorbachev.

→ Cause of end of CW.

Ronald Reagan

~~1980 - 1989~~

1981 - 1989.